

Copyright Policy

Copyright

All Rhondda Walters website content (including all artwork, images, text, designs, videos, information, and data content) is the intellectual property of the artist and is copyright. All rights are reserved, and all copyright in the content of the website remains with the artist, the Walters Gallery ('Gallery'), and attributed copyright owners.

Web site content may not be used, reproduced or distributed in any way without written permission from Rhondda Walters or an authorised Gallery representative.

All the artist's artworks, whether digital images, originals, or prints, remain the copyright of the artist before, during, and after purchase. They may not be reproduced by any means for any purpose whatsoever except by an express written license or assignment, signed by the artist or an authorised representative of the Gallery.

For information about permission to use web site content for media or promotional purposes, please contact the Gallery.

Prohibited uses

Except by express written agreement, signed by the artist or an executive officer of the Gallery, you may not use web site content:

- To create any copies or derived works
- To derive an unfair advantage
- To post to or embed in any other website or social media site
- Modified, republished, distributed, or communicated in any other form
- In any public performance, display, or transmission over a network
- Reproduced in any form, including, without limitation, extracted or stored in any retrieval system or included in any other computer program or work (except as may be required to legitimately view the Gallery website)

Policy Updates

This Policy may change from time to time and is available on the Gallery website.
